

My dear Watson,
The black stain
is due to sulphide of mercury from the crosswise sublimate and either sulphides in the flanks or what is more probable sulphides formed by the reduction of a sulphate by the slow
decay of the specimen.

Yours
C. L. Jackson

NOTHING BUT THE ADDRESS TO BE ON THIS SIDE.

Seeno Watson Esq.

Botanic Garden.

Cambridge.

Mass.